When you deposit the use of your resort home with Resort to Resort, you warrant that you have paid all maintenance fees and any other assessments with respect to the deposited time (including departure clean & any mandatory fees); that you are legally entitled to deposit this time and that you have not committed and will not commit this unit and or time to any other use than Resort to Resort. You agree that you have secured the services of our contracted property management company as stated in the above property manager line. This deposit is not confirmed until you receive notice from Resort to Resort that it has been approved. This deposit entitles you to receive the stated amount of resort credits for use within the Resort to Resort exchange network, up to 2 years after the deposit date in accordance with the current Guidelines of Resort to Resort. You must not deposit your week with more than one Exchange Company at a time, in any use year, as this will cause an overbooking of your unit. You agree to replace any double booking of your unit with accommodation comparable in location and quality. Should you remove yourself or be removed from the rental management company (or any other instance that would affect this deposit) you agree to purchase accommodation comparable in location and quality. Comparable quality and location are to be determined by Resort to Resort. I have read and understand the Guidelines of Resort to Resort. I authorize the exclusive assignment of use of the above accommodations for deposit to Resort to Resort and assignees.

By typing or signing my name in the box provided below, I hereby acknowledge that I accept the terms and conditions of this deposit form and the current guidelines of the Resort to Resort Homeowner Exchange Program.
